COWD.

(To the Editor of The Interior Journal.)
"Once upon a time" a large concourse had assembled to witness the performance of a daring and perilous feat, requiring great courage and endurance. The crowd viewed with intense interest the efforts and skill of the actor, but it was observed as he neared the goal of his purpose, that he hesitated, seemed exhausted, and that certain death awaited him in case of failure. Let us "cheer him," cried some one. A loud and prolonged cheer arose from the assembly, new life and vigor was infused, the feat performed, and the actor's life saved.

On the 8th of November, 1892, the American people determined by the most decisive majority ever given in a National election, that henceforth the government should proceed on the lines of tariff reform. This was the deliberate verdict of the people given to the leaders of the democratic party.

Few persons have even a faint conception of the herculean task of a revised tariff bill under the most auspicious conditions. But the conditions facing the democratic party when the present Congress met made the passage of a revised tariff measure extremely difficult and arduous. Our representatives engaged at once upon this onerous task with a courage, persistence and intelligence truly commendable. Never probably in the history of the nation have men met with more stubborn or persistent opposition, abuse and misrepresentation by the opposing party. But when and where has been the cheer sent up by our own party to encourage these representatives when the head grew faint and the body weary? Cowed! Cowed! The great democratic party frightened out of its wits, terrified, demoralized by the baseless sneers and taunts of its opponents. Anathemas thick and fast are hurled by professional politicians upon the head of Mr. Cleveland for his acts prompted by the purest motives and highest patriotism. Our great leading journals vie with each in traducing our law makers and in picking flaws and rending in pieces every proposed tariff measure.

But why is this? Any man with perceptive powers two degrees above a goose ought to know that all the twaddle about the democratic administration being the cause of hard times is the merest boosh, served up to gull fools. What proposition is plain than that the present financial panic is the legitimate result of the profligate expenditures and the wild speculation under the Harrison administration? Add to this the robbing of the masses for 30 years by a miserable tariff system for the benefit of the rich, and the matter is fully explained.

Again why this nervous haste that Congress does not at once pass a tariff bill? It can not be done. Those great measures require much time and patience. Why this wholesale denunciation of Gorman, Brice, McPherson, &c., as traitors and cowards? These constitute the safe, conservative element vital to the party. Or why the constant assertion that the Wilson bill, the Senate bill, the compromise bill are very little or no better than the McKinley bill? While in fact anyone of them is a long stride in the right direction, a vast improvement on the McKinley bill.

The writer, in principle, is an absolute free trader, yet he would fear the result if this immense superstructure of protection were completely razed to foundation in less time than 20 years. The man on the Eiffel tower must descend by gradients; the drunken man must sober by degrees. We must have respect for the vast fortunes put into factories and other schemes under the fostering promises of protective tariff.

J. S. REPERT.

Col. Hodges, who sticks to Congress-man Breckinridge through thick and thin, says in the Observer: "When jackleg preachers and fanatical women attempt to blackmail the democratic party to any particular line of action in the interest of republicanism, then the tug of war is sure to come. There are a few feeble-minded individuals who may fall into line at once with enthusiasm and a few others who apparently try to avoid contention, but the bulk of the party at once become defiant and are ready to urge war to the death. The women who lead in such movements usually raise more than children at home, and the preachers gather more fat than souls through their ministrations."

I have two little grand children who are teething this hot summer weather and are troubled with bowel complaint. I give them Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and it acts like a charm. I earnestly recommend it for children with bowel troubles. I was myself taken with a severe attack of bloody flux, with cramps and pains in my stomach, one-third of a bottle of this remedy cured me. Within 24 hours I was out of bed and doing my house work. Mrs. W. L. Duncan, Bon-aqua, Hickman Co., Tenn. For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, Druggist, Stanford.

Bucinin's Arnica Salve.
The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions. It positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford, Ky.

Some time ago I was troubled with an attack of rheumatism. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and was completely cured. I have since advised many of my friends and customers to try the remedy and all speak highly of it. Simon Goldbaum, San Luis Rey, Cal. For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, Druggist, Stanford.

Several Lancaster parties will visit the famous old resort in the near future.

The parties, who were tried, are thought to be the ring leaders and the city authorities think they have made good headway toward stopping the illegal sale of liquor. The following negroes were tried and fined: Annie Brown, 5 cases, $50 each case; Lettie White, 3 cases, $50 each; Charley Anderson, 1 case, $50; Anderson Leavel 2 cases, $50 each.

A Sermon by a Nonagenarian.

(To the Editor of The Interior Journal.)

I send you a few thoughts on man as or when he came from the plastic hand of his maker. The design of the Heavenly Father in making the world and man, was for his enjoyment, comfort and happiness. When we contemplate the many blessings given by the Heavenly Father we are constrained to say with the Psalmist, "Lord, what is man that thou art mindful of him?" &c.

Now in order for man to enjoy all of these blessings he must have a nature, or faculties given him, to appreciate all and every blessing so wonderfully bestowed by the Giver. In order to understand how those blessings are enjoyed, we must try and ascertain and learn that man is a compound or complex being; that is he has many faculties, or natures given him for the enjoyment of each and every one of these blessings, whether temporal or spiritual, and all those enjoyments are given on conditions. We must use the means or we can not enjoy them in any other way. We are now talking about man. Hence the Heavenly Father has provided all the means in the Bible; all Scripture given by inspiration of God is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works. 2 Timothy 16th, 17th verses; see 2d Peter 1:3-4. According as His divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain to life and Godliness, through the knowledge of Him that has called us to glory and virtue. Read the entire chapter. In order to understand we must recollect He made man susceptible of virtue or vice, happiness or misery. "Choose ye this day whom ye will serve." "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." "You will not come unto me." "Blessed are they that do His commandments that they may have right to the tree of life and may enter through the gates into the city." You will perceive my meaning in a few words, obedience will save a man and disobedience will damn him.

Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter, fear God and keep His commandments, for this is the whole duty of man. Again we say God has done all He can do, consistent with His nature, His laws and man's organization. If man is not saved eternally in heaven, it will be his fault. We would call upon an expression in a former remark on God's power. We only had reference in said remark to man. We know so far as power is concerned God can make worlds upon worlds. He made the sun, moon, stars and all things, but so far as man's salvation is concerned, all that is necessary to give us admittance into heaven is recorded in the Bible. No man living can tell us anything that is better than what is therein contained. Hence He commanded His apostles after they were prepared by the Holy Spirit, to go and preach the Gospel to every creature.

Tom Taylor lost $43 worth of ginseng out of his warehouse, probably taken by the same parties. There are two L. & N. detectives now here investigating.

Don't Like the Joke.

(To the Editor of The Interior Journal.)

ABBEVILLE, GA., JUNE 16, 1894.—"And the C. J. thinks Mr. Cleveland wants 'Happy Jack' as far away from home as possible."

"Happy Jack" don't know much about "Money and Morals;" don't know much about that "slaughter house and open grave;" nor was he one of those at the Louisville convention that stood "between the devil and the deep blue sea." He has always been a good yard dog and has never yet growled at a member of the household, but has always watched the enemy, and has never had to have a block on or kept in the guard house to keep him from snapping at the man of the house.

Mr. Cleveland knows that much about "Happy Jack," and is glad to get to trust him away from home, off out of sight, and he has reason not to trust some folks that far. Mr. Cleveland knows that "Happy Jack" is good, sound seed corn that will do to raise from and profers him to those big ears with weevils in their hearts. J. H. MILLER.

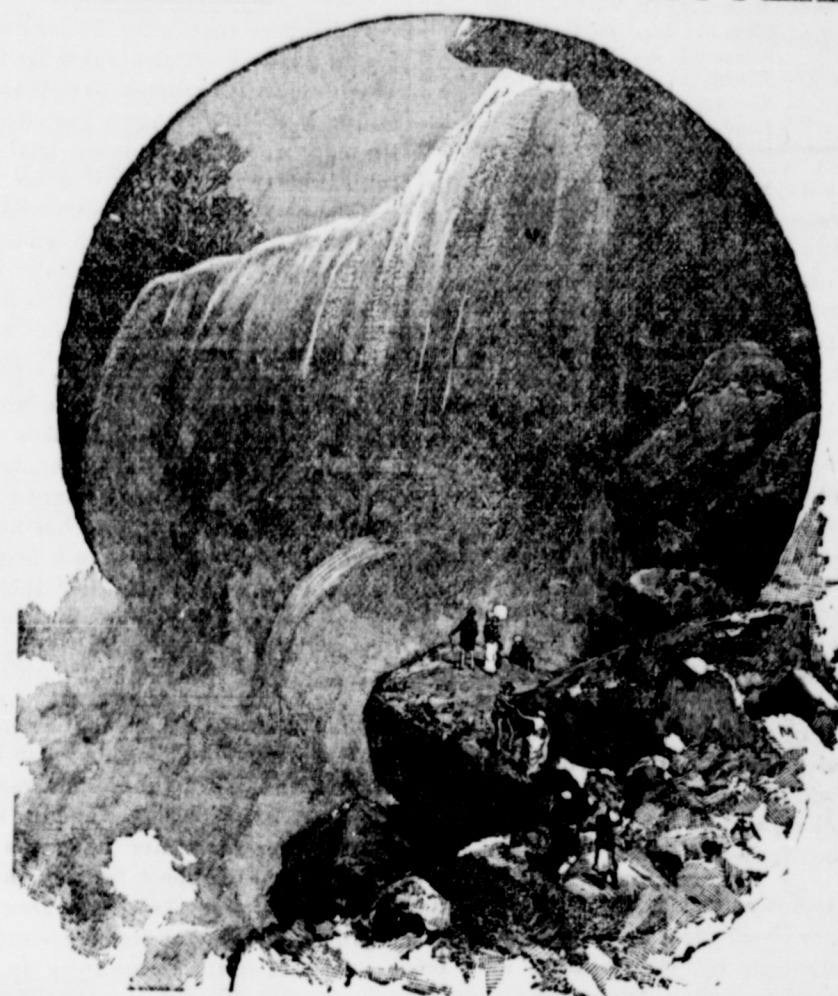

Federal Judge Grosscup rules at Chicago that a decoy letter used to secure evidence against a letter carrier charged with stealing from the mails was not in the mails "in a legal sense" and can not be introduced against him. It is this sort of judicial legerdemain that has done so much to bring the law into disrepute and to make it the refuge of the sharper and the science of slysterism. His Honor may object to such criticism as "contempt of court." That is just what it is. And it is a contempt of court shared in by the common-sense millions of the entire country.—Courier-Journal.

"What will we do with our girls?" is a question asked by a late magazine. At present, the answer is easy, for they may be disposed of in the good, old way; but after a time, the daughter of the modern mother will be so manish that a man will not want her. The problem of what to do with the girls will always be easy of settlement if the girls are but reared into the womanly womanhood that manly manhood likes.—St. Louis Republic.

ASHLAND, WIS.—The famous retreat in northern Wisconsin located on the Wisconsin Central Lines at the head of the Chequamegon Bay is a most desirable spot for one to spend a summer outing, surrounded as it is by the beautiful Apostle Islands. Little need be said of its scenic beauty and health giving qualities. This place should not be overlooked by those figuring on a resort for their next summer's vacation. The tourist will find excellent fishing and boating at this point, and good hotel accommodations at very reasonable rates. For further particulars, maps, time tables, and guide books apply to Jas. C. Pond, Genl. Pass. Agt., Milwaukee, Wis.

We learn that there is great dissatisfaction at Harrodsburg over the appointment of Mr. Phelps as postmaster and that excited partisans of the other applicants are swearing vengeance on Gov. McCreary for having appointed, as they claim, a man who has been a citizen of the place for only a short time. In response to this and other charges, Mr. Phelps publishes a card in the Sayings, giving his personal history and refuting the claim that he is not one of them. We do not take much stock in such controversies. They are always to be expected when the fight was allowed to wage as long and as fiercely as it was at Harrodsburg. Gov. McCreary does not often make a mistake, but it seems that he did in this case by deferring the evil day of a choice so long. The bitter feeling will die out before the election, doubtless, and all the loud talkers now will be McCreary men then.

It is hot as hades in South Carolina and the Senatorial candidates are adding to the caloric by criminations and recriminations. Gov. Tilman and Senator Butler are striving for the honor of representing the State in the House of Lords and the canvass has reached that stage in which one candidate says of the other, "If you or anybody else says so and so, you are an infamous liar." This is what the senator said about the governor and the lie is as good as the lick with the hot blooded Southerners. Tilman is a monumental failure as governor and if he gets his other eye knocked out nobody will cry.

Our own Col. W. O. Bradley has been in Cincinnati and as evil communications corrupt good manners, he has fallen into the prevailing habit of talking through his hat. He told a reporter that three republicans at least would be elected to Congress in Kentucky this Fall and that it is only a question of time till the old rock ribbed democratic State will take a place in the republican column. If Col. Bradley was not a practical prohibitionist, we should say he had been indulging in that murderous mixture known as Cincinnati whisky when he gave expression to such wild sentiments.

The New York Sun intimates that the passage of an income tax law will drive the intelligence of the North into the republican party. If its mouthpiece will go over on that side and stay, the opponents of the law even will have cause for rejoicing. The Sun wears the livery of democracy to hide its wolf's clothing of republicanism and to serve more effectively the cause of the protectionists.

St. John Boyle has been nominated by the republicans of Louisville for judge of the court of appeals. He is a brother of the two Boyles who are running democratic papers and is said to be a very capable lawyer, though if he thinks he has a ghost of a show for election, he proves that he is not fit material to judge even in small matters.

The Louisville Times showed the Post Wednesday that it could write a long editorial, when it deemed it necessary, but those of us who love to read Emmett Logan's scintillating paragraphs hope that the necessity will not often arise. Let the case of the Government vs. Architecture be heard in a lower court.

The news comes that Mayor D. G. Colson will head a syndicate to start a daily paper at Middlesboro. It will be republican in politics and it will take a man said to be as well healed as Colson to keep it aloft. Even then he may realize that "Man's a vapor full of woes, starts a paper, up he goes."

The republicans of Louisville have nominated a ticket from Congressman down to county surveyor. Their only hope is that the next National administration will be republican and that they will be in line for the Federal offices. They can not even dream of election by the people.

A BURGLAR entered the office of Attorney General Jack Hendrick at Frankfort and instead of taking some of his easily gotten gains, showed his despicable meanness by stealing $54 belonging to his young lady typewriter.

The miners lost $20,000,000 in wages by their strike and gained nothing to speak of, except in some instances the contempt of law abiding citizens. It is of the rarest occurrence that strikes are made to profit the strikers.

It is now said that the Senate will vote upon the tariff bill Monday as a whole. For which promise we are duly thankful. May it not prove like previous promises held to the ear to be broken to the hope.

HON. CASSIUS M. CLAY, JR., is making speeches over the State in the interest of his candidacy for governor. He spoke at Glasgow Monday, and, the Times says made a modest and forcible speech. But little interest has developed in the race but the paper says that Hardin is the favorite there. We have it from good authority, though, that Mr. Clay will be the next governor of Kentucky. Hon. W. H. Miller figures it out to a moral certainty.

The report that Miss Pollard was enjoying a cruise on the lakes is denied. Washington dispatches say that she is still in that city, living in the closest retirement since the famous trial. Had the defendant done likewise he would have shown more anagony and saved himself a world of criticism and many heart aches. People might have forgotten the sin he ever keeps fresh in their minds by his persistent public appearances.

THE two negro women who sued the L. & N. because it permitted a white man to ride in a Jim Crow car, failed to get a judgment; but they ought to have secured one. A white man has no more right in a negro coach than a negro has in a white man's coach. Let the sauce for the goose be the same for the gander and justice be done though the heavens fall.

THE sons of Col. Jack Chinn, the dead game Harrodsburg sport and man cutter, deserve the most honorable mention. There are four of them and it is said they neither drink, nor have the other vices natural to expect in boys who have had such an example. They are all good business men and have the confidence and respect of the community in which they live.

To those who are weary and heavy laden with the Senate's delay in passing a tariff bill, we commend the article from the pen of Prof. Reppert on our first page. He is a free trader, but doesn't think the policy can be put into effect in a day, nor even 20 years.

THE Glasgow Times is booming Hon. H. C. Gorin for Congress, but it has not yet been guilty of saying he is Gorin to win, at least in that way.

—West Virginia spent $10,000 in keeping her soldiers on duty during the miners' strike and now hasn't a cent to pay for it. Gov. McCorkle has given his note for $2,500 of the amount, and it looks as if he will have to fix up the balance if the troops are paid.

ORDER OF ELECTION.

Lincoln County Court Held June 11, 1894, Hon. W. E. Varnon, Judge, Presiding.
 A copy of the judgment of the Lincoln Circuit Court in the case of W. B. Penny and others, Plaintiffs, against W. E. Varnon, Judge of the Lincoln County Court, upon a motion for a Writ of Mandamus, was on the 4th day of June, 1894, served upon the defendant as judge aforesaid by his accepting same, the portion of said judgment awarding the writ of mandamus, in said words and figures as follows, to-wit:

Lincoln Circuit Court.
 W. B. Penny, and others, Pls. } Judgment.
 W. E. Varnon, Judge of Lincoln }
 vs. }
 W. E. Varnon, Judge of Lincoln }

This cause was submitted by the parties upon their agreed statement of the question in controversy and of the facts on file, and upon the affidavits on file, and on the motion of plaintiffs for writ of mandamus, notice of which motion was waived by the defendant, and the court being advised is of opinion, and so adjudged that it was the legal duty of the defendant as judge of the Lincoln County Court to order the election asked for by plaintiffs in their petition to said defendant, and that plaintiffs are entitled to the remedy sought by their motion; their motion is therefore sustained, and the writ of mandamus is awarded against W. E. Varnon, Judge of the Lincoln County Court, by which he is commanded at the next regular term of the Lincoln County Court to enter upon the order book of his court an order directing an election to be held in and for the city of Stanford and directing the Sheriff of Lincoln County to hold an election and open a poll therefor at each of the voting places in said city upon the purpose of taking the sense of the legal voters of said city upon the proposition whether or not spirituous, vinous or malt liquors shall be sold, bartered or loaned therein. Inasmuch as, by reason of the refusal of defendant to make said order at the regular term of said court when plaintiff's application was made, it is now too late to hold said election on the day designated in the plaintiff's petition, to-wit: On the 23rd day of June, 1894, and at the same time enable the sheriff to comply with the requirements of the law, that the said election should be advertised by him at least two weeks before the day of election, the defendant is commanded in his said order for said election to fix another and later day as reasonably near the day asked for by plaintiffs as will afford ample time for the advertisement thereof required by law. And the writ of mandamus herein in no wise omit to obey. In obedience to the command in said writ as above fully set out and it appearing that the money to pay the expenses that applicants are by law required to pay has been paid into court: It is ordered that an election be held in the city of Stanford, Ky., on the 7th day of July, 1894, between the hours of 7 A. M. and 4 P. M. A poll to be opened at each of the voting places in said city for the purpose of taking the sense of the legal voters of said city upon the proposition whether or not spirituous, vinous or malt liquors shall be sold, bartered or loaned therein, the result of said election to be certified to and returned as required by law in the election of county officers.

The following officers are appointed to hold said election:

 Attest: GEO. B. COOPER, Clerk Lincoln County Court.

SEVERANCE & SON will adopt the cash system July 1, and in a card give excellent reasons for it. Everybody should do so. The credit system is the bane of the country.

MADISON county has a labor commission whose duty it is to allot laborers to work on the county roads, which are to be greatly improved. The laborers get 10 cents an hour.

WE printed for Severance & Son 1,000 circulars this week, which they have been mailing to the trade, announcing the adoption of strictly cash business. A copy will be found in our advertising columns.

SUCH sensations as that sent out from Crab Orchard Springs about a man being caught in a woman's room, &c., had best be kept quiet. No good can result to the house by it and none to the public by such publications.

LAWRENCEBURG citizens held a meeting Monday to urge upon Congress the necessity of a public building there. To the casual observer most any kind of a building, even to a chicken coop, is needed there to make a town of the place.

The races will be run on a splendid half mile track.

MR. JAMES HUTCHINSON, who advertised in this paper for his two lost horses, found them the other day on the top of a high knob near his home in the Hales' Well vicinity. Rascals had evidently ridden them, for each horse's back showed the print of a saddle, and besides they were considerably the worse for the excessive exercise they no doubt got.

OUR dry goods and clothing merchants have wisely concluded to join the grocers in early closing, so beginning to-night, Messrs. S. H. Shanks, D. W. Vandever, B. F. Jones & Son, Severance & Son, H. J. McRoberts and Hughes & Tate will close their stores at 7 o'clock each evening except Saturdays. The Louisville Store would not enter the agreement.

He was let off with one cent and costs, together with a promise that he would never trouble the old lady again.

CIRCUIT COURT has been busy trying minor civil cases, of little interest to others than the lawyers and litigants. An order was made Tuesday extending the term one week, making it a four weeks term.

The case of Rev. B. C. Sizemore for $500 damages against the L. & N. for slight injuries sustained in getting off a train was stricken from the docket. The largest present is $300 and the smallest $10. The tickets cost 50 cents each, and Masons here can be supplied by Mr. A. R. Penny. Full descriptive circulars will be sent on application to the Masonic Widows and Orphans' Home, Louisville, Ky.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Norman Clark and his sweetheart, Jennie Riley, were killed by lightning under a tree near Lyons, Ia.

—The Rev. Dr. John Paxton paid a fine of $10 for neglecting to record the certificate of the marriage of Congressman W. C. P. Breckinridge and Mrs. Wing, which he celebrated in April, 1893, in New York City.

—When a runaway couple were married by a Jeffersonville squire the other day, the groom became so enthusiastic that when asked if he would take the young woman for better or worse, he exclaimed: "You can bet your sweet life, I will," at the same time throwing his arms around her and kissing her.

—At the bride's father's residence, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, Miss Mattie Eubanks and Mr. S. P. Buckley, of Kewanee, Ohio, were married by Rev. A. V. Sizemore, who then officiated in his 94th ceremony, which was beautiful and impressive. Miss Marietta Carman and Mr. Charley Davis, Miss Fannie Eubanks and Mr. Crit Eubanks were the attendants. The bride, whose amiable disposition has made her greatly beloved by a wide circle of friends, is the daughter of Mr. G. W. Eubanks, an influential farmer and excellent Christian gentleman of this county. The groom is a grocery and hardware merchant and his success has proven him to be a gentleman of fine business qualifications. They start together in life under favorable circumstances and the union can but prove a happy one. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party were driven in carriages to Danville, where they took the train for the groom's home in Ohio. The best wishes of innumerable friends will ever attend them. For reasons not necessary to state, several young men in the Mt. Xenia neighborhood are wearing crapes on their hats and trying as best they can to console each other.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Pastor Mitchell, assisted by Bro. Howard Jones, is being greatly blessed in a meeting in the Bargin church. Twenty-two have been received into the fellowship of the church, and the interest is increasing.—Western Recorder.

—The wife of Judge B. J. Peters died at Mt. Sterling, aged 78. Her married life reached over the long period of 62 years, nine months and eighteen days. For over 61 years she and her husband have been members of the Christian church.

—There is in this county, says the Hazel Green Herald, one of the most remarkable preachers, perhaps to be found in Kentucky. We refer to the Rev. Reuben Smith, who is now 88 years of age and preaches at some point every Sunday. He never rides, but walks to each of his appointments, and no condition of the weather ever causes him to fail. He is a shouting Methodist.

—A dispatch from Lawrenceburg says that Elder C. E. Powell, now in charge of a church at Glasgow, has been called to the pastorate of the Lawrenceburg church and that he is prominently spoken of as the probable candidate for Congress on the prohibition ticket in this district. If caught from us could influence him, we should urge against his acceptance of the latter. He is said to be a most promising preacher. He can not hope to be a success as a preacher-politician.

—In the year which has just closed the total receipts of the American Bible Society were $662,729.80. The total cash disbursements for general purposes amounted to $576,792.03. The Scriptures printed and purchased during the year have amounted to 1,559,066 volumes, of which 1,133,775 were printed on the presses in the Bible House. The volumes issued from the Bible House numbered 1,039,960, in foreign lands, 407,099.—Christian Work.

An Arkansas editor puts it this way: "You may live all the stars in a nail keg, hang the ocean on a nail to dry, put the sky in a gourd to soak, unbuckle the belly-band of eternity, and let out the sun and moon, but never be deluded with an idea that you can escape that place on the other side of purgatory unless you pay the printer."

—It is claimed for Robert O'Dell, of Wise county, Va., that his general health is still good, though he has used whiskey moderately for 102 years, tobacco immoderately for 88 years, and radically voted the republican ticket every chance he got. As he was a Union soldier, the secret of his preservation can doubtless be revealed in the fact that he draws a pension.

HUBBLE.

—Prof. Joe E. Robinson is with his parents again for a few days.

—Mrs. Bright Herring sold her lambs to Ben Robinson this week at 31c.

—S. Danbar is having some painting done about his house by G. A. Scott, of Lancaster.

—Mr. Eph Pennington has bought a new binder and will go to cutting wheat for the public, as well as for himself.

—Bro. Arnold was out fishing and reeling and making his friends very happy last week by being with them a few days.

—Mr. Loyd Bourne and Miss Emma Sutton were married in Lancaster, Tuesday night, on their way to a supper at the Fork Church. No one knew of it till after the two were made one.

—A mad dog came to J. W. Bright's a few days ago and falling on a lot of pups, killed several of them. John hallowed for Jim Blackberry to come to his rescue, which he did and killed the dog, together with all of Bright's canines.

—An old rooster in this town was seen to fly up and fall to the ground, acting as though he had a fit. Some thought he had been bitten by a mad dog, but on investigation it was found that he was only rejoicing that eggs were worth 81c in his town again.

—Miss Allie Surber is here looking for a school, and by the way, she is worthy and competent to teach in any district. J. E. McClure, president of the Montrose National Bank, of Colorado, accompanied by his wife, is visiting relatives here. Dr. Thompson, of Kingsville, was here one day this week on business.

—A bolt broke in Mr. T. Smith's well machine while boring at G. P. Bright's the other day; this let the sweep pole fall against the horse and being blind, the old horse thought from the length of time he had been at work that the drill had gone through and struck something, if not water, so he ran away with the machine, fell in the well and got crippled up considerably.

—There is much complaint in Breathitt, Wolf and Magoffin counties that a number of those who stood the examination for teachers' certificates had copies of the list of questions in advance.

—Jackson Hustler, at Richmond, the proposition to vote a tax of $22,000 for the erection of a graded school building for that city was carried by a majority of over four to one in a total of about 700 votes. Bonds will be issued at once and will easily be sold at par.

They furthermore state that they regard her as worth eighteen dollars, ($18.) Said cow came to A. C. Dunn's April 23, 1894.

OUR CIRCULAR

Stanford, Ky., June 20, 1894.

Dear Sir:—

After mature and careful consideration, we have decided that it is best to the interest of ourselves and customers to adopt a strictly CASH business, from July 1st, next.

In doing this we do not say that those who sell on credit rob their customers, nor do they charge them up with the bad debts, for we believe you will join us in saying we have sold good goods as cheap as any one. You will naturally ask, what then is to be gained by our customers in our making this change? As a part only, of the advantages will say, it will enable us to do business on much smaller capital; then we will have no books to keep, which has required the constant work of one person. The interest on excess capital, as also on amount on our books and salary of book-keeper, makes a large sum, which we propose to give to our customers in lower prices.

We assure you we appreciate the generous trade you have always given us and ask you to continue to trade with us under the new order of things, and we believe you will find it to your interest to do so.

We intend to keep our stock fully up to what it has been heretofore and expect to add several new lines of goods, to make it the complete stock to be found in our city.

When we say our terms are cash, we mean by that we will keep no books, make no "tickets for a few days," but cash down when the goods are sold. We intend to treat all alike; one price to all and that the lowest. You will always find that you can buy 100 cents worth of good goods for every dollar you spend with us.

Thanking you for past favors, we are, Yours Truly,
